26 Apr 1884 from London arrived Australia LIGURIA

1886 appointed layreader Healesville diocese Melbourne:

but people opposed him and urged men to stay away from his services, and he did not hold the scheduled services

18 Dec 1886 EDWARDS wrote to the dean of Melbourne MACARTNEY: that he has been terminated from 31 Dec 1886. He wants another appointment as a reader, preferably under a clergyman or at least without so 24 Jan 1887 another letter from Healesville, in support: he is straight forward, an honest and manly young fellow and lack of experience has been his biggest problem

1887 reader at Morwell Victoria – his wife complained of illicit relations with local women from this time, and debts

1888 non-resident theological student Trinity College (111, much responsibility (111, and Leonie Duncan diocesan archivist Melbourne Nov 2007)

20 Dec 1886 the secretary of the church S John Healesville wrote to the Very Revd the Dean MACARTNEY (of Melbourne) about unpleasantness with EDWARDS: a lady had accused him of ungentlemanly behaviour; he was removed from Healesville but it was not fairly handled and Leonie Duncan diocesan archivist Melbourne Nov 2007)

15 Jul 1889 on nomination of the archdeacon of Beechworth, John HERRING: deacon parochial district Milawa diocese Melbourne

30 Nov 1890 notice of intention and then:

17 Dec 1890 offering himself for priesthood (111, and Leonie Duncan diocesan archivist Melbourne Nov 2007)

22 Dec 1890 priest Milawa (111)

1892-1893 curate Pyramid Hill (8)

25 Nov 1893 priest Rochester (111)

Aug 1895-Nov 1897 by exchange with T GHENT, vicar Clyde with Cromwell and Dunstan diocese Dunedin

1896-1897 clergyman residing Clyde - no wife enrolled at that address

31 Oct 1897 departed Clyde, unpaid (266)

15 Dec 1897 in partial disguise he disappeared in Dunedin Otago – intending to seek employment from JULIUS the bishop of Christchurch or WALLIS bishop of Wellington – but he was doubtful of success Jul 1898 His wife claimed: that with their two children they had gone together to parish Clyde Otago diocese Dunedin: but also with the peccant house maid; with their two children she departed for Melbourne while he disappeared to avoid creditors; after three years, she sued for divorce on the grounds of his desertion (01 Jul 1902 West Coast Times)

newspaper reports he with wife and family had left Victoria for New Zealand 'until there was another bishop in Victoria'; when she last saw him he was disguised, claiming creditors were after him A solicitor of Clyde Otago thought it very possible that he had fled to North America (20 Mar 1901 Otago Witness)

1900 last entry in Crockford (8)

24 May 1901 wife advertised for his whereabouts so that she could get dissolution of marriage on the grounds of desertion (West Coast Times)

10 Sep 1901 Sarah EDWARDS obtained divorce on the grounds of desertion by her husband the Revd Alfred EDWARDS Anglican clergyman supposedly living in New Zealand (Werriwa Times and Goulburn District News)

 22 Feb 1869-30 Jun 1870 minister parochial district Northcote and Preston 15 Nov 1870 with support PERRY bishop Melbourne and licence signed by PATTESON bishop of Melanesia:
 alighted from the steamer AUCKLAND in Levuka Fiji islands, previously there a teacher and thus connected to the bishop of Melanesia through the latter's visits to Melanesians in Fiji
 Note: 1874 Fiji ceded to Britain which effectually raised status of the church (202) 19 Jul 1875 permission to perform office of chaplain to British residents in Fiji Islands (under licence from the Bishop of London) (111)
 [Note In Pacific Irishman, WHONSBON-ASTON states that this licence seems to have been signed (irregularly) by the bishop of Melbourne, who released him to Fiji, by Bishop TYRRELL of Newcastle, on behalf of Abp BARKER of Sydney and metropolitan of Australia, and Bishop PATTESON of Melanesia - however this is mistaken for none of these had jurisdiction in Fiji and in fact PATTESON was dead. (MWB)] founded Anglican church in Fiji, and the Melanesian mission in Fiji, and the Indian Coolie mission (see Cyclopedia of Fiji 1907)
 1875-1885 chaplain Fiji islands extra-diocesan

 Fiji, Tonga or Friendly islands, Samoa or Navigators Group, and Rotumate island (280)
 1885- SPG missionary at Levuka Fiji, with stipend £250 from SPG (as also JF JONES)
 31 May 1885 in Dublin Ireland, wrote to BENSON abp of Canterbury
 12 Jul 1886 NEVILL wrote to Canterbury: that the New Zealand bishops had accepted superintendence of work in Fiji, Friendly (Tonga) and Navigator islands, with NEVILL as 'correspondent' for the church in these islands; he now sought help from SPG grants to support missionaries there.
 16 Jul 1889 from Fiji wrote to SPG: progress of his Polynesian school (280)
 usually the diocese is stated by the Fijian source as 'London'; in some years' records FLOYD puts 'diocese of Fiji' or crosses out 'diocese of' and heads only 'Fiji'; see micro-ms-coll-17-119 ATL 1895 (for instance) £250 for stipend from SPG, as also for JF JONES (180)

19 Jun 1904 his major building project Holy Redeemer Levuka consecrated by Bishop WILLIS from Tonga
c1905 Bishop ST NEVILL when primate of New Zealand made a private visit to Samoa and Tonga, advocated greater Anglican involvement in mission work, promoted a diocese of the 'Eastern Pacific' as part of 'an Oceanic province'

1851 Mrs Charlotte GODLEY describes him. '... a little fussy upstanding man, whose very bow and style of greeting, tone, manner, words, all have on them the very stamp of humbug ... and forbid the idea of considering him what I have been used to call a gentleman. An outside of easygoing good-nature, not for an instant concealing a most careful watch over his own interest; and selfishness, even about armchairs, and the things he likes to eat; and complete want of reverence in his use of sacred words and expressions... Always self-seeking and inaccurate... his great cleverness and excellence as a land-sale commissioner and the remarkable eloquence of his sermons. His manners are most unpleasant..' She liked Mrs JACKSON better, 'in some ways very good-looking. Better than her husband, and with ... a very good figure, and beautiful hands and arms; so that she looks and moves like a lady in spite of herself.' She with chagrin noted that Bishop SELWYN 'could not, and did not, conceal his contempt and even dislike' of T JACKSON. (43)
