June-September, 1943

No. 6

Dear Parishioners of St Mary's:

The summer season is upon us. The schedule of services and the confession hours which will be maintained from June the first through September the thirtieth is printed below. It is scarcely necessary to remind the faithful that our Catholic duties and privileges are summer as well as winter duties and privileges. Those who are to be away from St Mary's for any part of the summer will locate an altar by which they will live and at which they will worship.

The Board of Trustees has been forced to the decision not to open officially the Summer Home at Keyport, New Jersey, this coming summer. This decision has been regretfully reached for very many reasons, most of which are due directly to the times in which we are living. It is to be devoutly hoped that the Summer Home may be happily reopened in the summer of 1944.

Again we are taking the space to print in AVE the names and addresses of the members of St Mary's who are in the armed forces of our country. Such a list is greatly appreciated by the enlisted men themselves. The names on this list are read at the regular Wednesday noon service of Exposition, Intercessions and Benediction, and they will be used in the private prayers of the congregation. The list is not complete and I should greatly appreciate the cooperation of the members of the congregation in making it more nearly complete. Prompt notification of enlistments and changes in address should be made to the Church Office.

May the summer months for each member of St Mary's mean a happy combination of worship, work and recreation!

Affectionately yours,

Guiney Taber

AFTER Holy Communion in the celebration of the Holy Mass there follows the Prayer of Thanksgiving, which is commonly omitted if only the celebrant receives communion. This Prayer lays emphasis upon three causes of gratitude: first, the gift of the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of Jesus Christ; second, the incorporation of communicants into the mystical body of Jesus Christ, the happy company of all the faithful; and third, the heritage of life eternal, not by the merits of the communicants themselves who are always unworthy, but rather by the merits won by the death and passion of Jesus Himself. The Prayer of Thanksgiving then proceeds with the petition that all who are strengthened by heavenly food may use this spiritual strength in doing good works, thereby in tangible form expressing a generous measure of gratitude. Such a wonderful prayer as this spurs the faithful on to counting their blessings instead of grumbling when any one blessing is for a brief space withheld. After all, who of us would be presumptuous enough to claim any right to God's blessings? And shall not our hearts be constantly filled with gratitude in that He who on Calvary stretched out His arms to embrace all sinners holds His arms open daily in the Holy Mass? Is it too much to expect that the faithful in their turn will take away with them and live and practice all that has been done and said during the blessed experience of another Mass, thus becoming grateful missionaries of the King of Love?

Following the Prayer of Thanksgiving comes the Post-Communion. This is introduced by a short text called the "Communion Proper", which usually consists of a brief antiphon. Then are sung the Post-Communion collects which are always equal in number to the collects sung at the beginning of the Mass. These collects are prayers briefly and simply stated, so that they may be universal enough in their appeal to express the thought of all the worshippers and sufficiently reserved in their language to permit the innate regard of the faithful for the liberty of the Holy Spirit to flower. Here words are not multiplied since words can never suffice to express genuine appreciation for the visit of Lord Jesus to His own.

After the Post-Communion there follows the Dismissal. At this point the deacon of the Mass sings "Depart in peace" on festal days and "Let us bless the Lord" on ferial days. To either salutation the congregation responds "Thanks be to God". What a wonderful thing it would be if every worshipper at every Mass were to go forth from that Mass out into the work-a-day world with the words of blessed Paul the Apostle on his lips and in his heart "All things are yours, for ye are Christ's and Christ is God's"! Yes, the whole world is placed by its Maker into the hands of the faithful to be made holy and to be restored to its heavenly calling. Every faithful worshipper is therefore a missionary of the Divine Mission.

Following the Dismissal comes the Blessing. Before the celebrant gives the Blessing he prays privately that the Sacrifice which he has offered may be acceptable to the Holy and Undivided Trinity. Then kissing the altar stone he turns to the congregation to impart the Blessing of the Holy Trinity upon each and every one of them. As he imparts the Blessing he makes the Sign of the Cross. The people sign themselves and respond with an "Amen".

The Mass is brought to a close with the reading of the Last Gospel. This is taken from the opening verses of St John's Gospel. The majesty of the words of this Last Gospel reveals the loving kindness of Jesus Christ, who though rich became poor for the sake of us His children that through His poverty we might be made rich. Also there is revealed in this Gospel the tragedy of man's abuse of his own free will to the extent that he not infrequently banishes himself from his God. Yet we are told in poignant language in this Gospel that God respects the free will of man and therefore throughout all time contents Himself with being the Divine Beggar, begging for entrance into the heart of man while He maintains His poverty and silence beneath the Spotless Sacred Host. We are also reminded in this Gospel of the joy that comes to the faithful who will receive Jesus for they thereby receive the power to become the sons of God. As the Last Gospel closes with a memorial of the Incarnation of the Son of God, when all genuflect as a token of love for all that this Incarnation implies, the congregation rejoices to say "Thanks be to God".

Thus the Mass is ended, but the next celebration of the Holy Mass is eagerly anticipated for He who has just presented Himself as both Priest and Victim at an earthly altar has graciously promised "Lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world."

THE clergy vacations, voted by the Board of Trustees, are the following:

July	— Father Taber
August	— Father Craven
September	— Father Brown

No priest will be away in June since this year June is filled with many of the great festivals of Holy Church.

IT will be a great help to the Parish Treasurer if the congregation will pay their weekly pledges Sunday by Sunday during the summer months, and, in any event, before leaving for an extended holiday.

WE express our heartfelt gratitude for the faithfulness of the many students of the General Theological Seminary who during the past season have served at St Mary's altars. These candidates for the sacred priesthood have filled out our schedule of acolytes' appointments as a labor of love.

"LITTLE WOMEN", a dramatic arrangement by Kristen Laurence, will be presented in St Joseph's Hall by the Guild of St Mary of Nazareth on the evenings of June sixteenth and seventeenth at eight. The admission price (including the Federal tax) is fifty cents for adults and thirty-five cents for children. Tickets may be obtained through the Sisters in the Mission House or from one of the girls of this Guild. Your gracious patronage is confidently looked for.

SACRAMENTS AND OTHER RITES

BAPTISMS.—Sundays after High Mass by arrangement with the clergy. Proper sponsors should be chosen.

MARRIAGES are solemnized only after arrangement with the clergy and after three days' notice has been given. A certificate of Baptism should be produced by both parties. Those to be married should, if confirmed, receive Holy Communion. A nuptial Mass is suggested. It is against God's law to marry anyone divorced, as long as the other partner is living. Marriages are not solemnized during Lent, nor on Sundays or Christmas Day.

SICK CALLS.—Holy Unction and Communion of the Sick, on application to the clergy, in person, by telephone, or by post.

BURIALS.—The clergy should always be consulted before any arrangements are made. The bodies of baptized persons may be brought to the Chantry of the church at any time before the day of the funeral. It is the usual custom at St Mary's to have the funeral service a requiem Mass.

MUSIC.—Arrangements for music at weddings or funerals should be made directly with Mr White, the Director of Music.
