No. 6

My dear people,

When the Day of Pentecost is fully come, we know God as he is: Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. God, in his goodness, gives us full revelation of his Being. For this we thank him on Trinity Sunday. And on the next Sunday, the Sunday after Corpus Christi, we thank him for the Holy Communion we have with him: he in us, and we in him. Since "Processiontide" lasts, this year, till the end of June, many of you will have gone away for well-earned holidays by that Sunday. But if you are in town you will want to come and worship God in the Blessed Sacrament and hear his Word preached by an old friend of Saint Mary's: Dr John Macquarrie, Lady Margaret Professor of Divinity in Oxford University.

Meanwhile, Father Boyer will have left with his mother, to pick up his Oxford M.A. and brush up on his English. I am glad they can have the trip together.

After Corpus Christi Sunday, McNeil Robinson, our organist, will be on leave of absence for several months. His doctor has ordered it, he and I have agreed on it, and we all must wish him to have it to regain his strength. However, we shall miss his skill and welcome him back gratefully.

At the end of the Summer, Father Atkinson will complete his year with us, on loan from the Order of the Holy Cross. I speak for you all in thanking the Order for sharing one of their finest members, and Father Atkinson for giving of himself so generously.

Our seminarians now know their plans. Scott Helferty is to be made deacon by the Bishop of Idaho in his cathedral in Boise on June 2, and will serve at the Ascension, Chicago. Ronald Lau will be ordained (for the Bishop of California) at the Bishop of New York's ordination in his cathedral on June 9 at 10:30 a.m., and will do graduate work at General.

The Feast of the Assumption of our Lady, August 15—Wednesday—gives those who are away most summer weekends an opportunity for a weekday High Mass. Last year, carloads came from Springfield, New London, Philadelphia, Washington, D.C., and High Point, N. C.

Summertime gives opportunity for reading—lots of it light, but not all. If you have not yet read it, Dr Macquarrie's Paths in Spirituality ought to be at the top of your list. Some chapters—Eucharistic Presence, Benediction, Stations—were first done for us. Other chapters give other facets of Christian devotion—always in that clear, sparkling way we have come to expect from John Macquarrie. Lest you miss it, I will point proudly to the dedication.

The only way to learn to pray, of course, is to pray. If you want words—though we must make our own, too—I recommend Prayers, Thanksgivings, and Litanies, handsomely printed for the Standing Liturgical Commission in preparation for the future Prayer Book. Don't miss the valuable introductory essay on prayer. The book would make a handsome gift.

Another publication of the Standing Liturgical Commission, a sample of which we print on the next two pages, should be compared with what is in the present Prayer Book, pages 192-3. Whether we should teach anything by rote, many question, but there is no question, I think, that most Church people want a Catechism in their Prayer Book. It shows we have a faith. And it's always good reading during dull sermons!

Debate is not over on the question of women priests, nor will it be even after General Convention—which at worst can only proceed to alter the Church's Constitution and Canons. There is a booklet edited by Father Lutge, with such world-famous theologians as Bouyer, Macquarrie, Schmemmann, and von Allmen contributing; and in this goodly fellowship you will find our own Boyer and Rutler. The booklet is entitled Sexuality, Theology and Priesthood and, like the preceding publications, can be got at our shop.

Our influence seems to spread widely—as widely as those who visit us and those who read AVE. One dear friend of mine, sending her annual contribution for AVE (have you sent yours?) gave me a thought I am proud to end on: "Every time I read AVE, I think how far you reach to your 'family' ". Near or far, member or friend, I wish you a good summer and call myself

Affectionately your priest,
DONALD L. GARFIELD

THE SACRAMENTS

(Excerpt from the revised Catechism)

Q. What are the sacraments?

A. The sacraments are the outward and visible signs of inward and spiritual grace, ordained by Christ to be the means by which we receive that grace.

Q. What are the two great sacraments of the Gospel?

A. The two great sacraments given by Christ for our salvation are Holy Baptism and the Holy Eucharist.

Q. What is the outward and visible sign in Baptism?

A. The outward and visible sign in Baptism is water, in which the person is baptized in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

Q. What is the grace given in Baptism?

A. The grace given in Baptism is the forgiveness of sins, union with Christ in his death and resurrection, birth into God's family the Church, and the abiding presence of the Holy Spirit.

Q. What is required of us at Baptism?

A. It is required of us at Baptism that we should repent and turn from sin, renounce evil, and affirm our trust in Christ as our Lord and Saviour.

Q. What is the Eucharist?

A. The Eucharist is the Church's sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving for creation and redemption in Christ. It is the sacrament in which, according to Christ's command, we make continual remembrance of his passion and death, his resurrection and ascension, until his coming again; and in which, by participation in his Body and Blood, we thankfully receive the benefits of his sacrifice.

Q. By what other names is this sacrament known?

A. This sacrament is also called the Lord's Supper, the meal of holy fellowship which unites us to him and to his whole Church, and is a foretaste of the Messianic banquet. It is also called the Holy Communion, because Christ is truly present and gives himself to be our spiritual nourishment through the outward signs that we eat and drink, so that we may share in his life and work in the world.

Q. What is the outward and visible sign in the Eucharist?

A. The outward and visible sign in the Eucharist is bread and wine, given and received according to Christ's command.

Q. What is the grace given in the Eucharist?

A. The grace given in the Eucharist is the life of Christ himself, given and received as spiritual food in his Body and Blood.

Q. What are the benefits we receive in the Eucharist?

A. The benefits we receive in the Eucharist are the forgiveness of our sins, the strengthening of our union with Christ in his Church, and the nourishing of our bodies, souls, and spirits for eternal life.

Q. What is required of us when we come to the Eucharist?

A. It is required of us that we should repent of our sins, have a living faith in God's mercy through Christ, and be in love and charity with all people.

Q. What other sacramental acts has the Church ordained under the guidance of the Holy Spirit?

A. Among the other sacramental acts in this Church are laying-on of hands, anointing of the sick, ordination of bishops, priests, and deacons, holy marriage, and the declaration of forgiveness to penitent sinners.
