WM. JEWETT, TREASURER.

THE SIXTEENTH ANNIVERSARY

Was held in St. James' Church, Madison Avenue and 71st Street, on Sunday evening, December 16th, 1888. The service, as read by the Rector, Rev. Dr. Smith, and the assistant, Rev. Mr. Hamilton, was rendered in signs by Rev. Dr. Gallaudet, who then made an address to the congregation in relation to the objects of the Society.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Mr. James Lewis is authorized to act as Collector, and is commended to those on whom he calls.

The donation of $100 or upwards at one time makes the donor eligible for election as a life member.

Twelfth Sunday after Trinity offerings are requested from churches and individuals in the Dioceses of New York, Long Island, Albany, Northern New Jersey, Connecticut, Rhode Island, Massachusetts, Vermont, New Hampshire and Maine, the field to which the Society is now limited, and in which its missionaries are holding sign services at upwards of twenty-five different places.

The Guild of Silent Workers meets in the Guild Room of St. Ann's Church on the last Tuesday of the month, at 8 P. M. This Society, through its officers and committees, has been instrumental in extending aid to many deaf-mutes and their families in times of trouble. The Secretary is Mr. Solomon P. Cornelius, and the Treasurer, Mr. Isaac N. Soper.

The Rev. A. T. Colt conducts a Bible Class for deaf-mutes on Thursday evenings in one of the basement rooms of St. Ann's Church.

One great object of "The Church Mission to Deaf-Mutes" is to bring deaf-mutes, after they leave school, into pastoral relations. Among the so-called Protestant bodies, the Church with its Book of Common Prayer, with its lessons from Holy Scripture systematically arranged, with the special teachings of the changing seasons of the ecclesiastical year, and with so much that speaks to the eye in its ritual, offers advantages that have drawn within its fold large numbers of our silent brethren. It is hoped that the Rectors will search out the deaf-mutes who are near them and invite them to attend service, seeing that persons are appointed to show them the places in the Prayer Books and Bibles.

THE SIXTEENTH ANNUAL REPORT

OF THE TRUSTEES OF

The Church Mission to Deaf-Mutes.

Our Society was incorporated in October, 1872, to promote the temporal and spiritual welfare of adult deaf-mutes.

Our missionaries have been fully occupied for another year in most interesting work, along the line indicated by this statement, in the Dioceses of New York, Long Island, Albany, Newark, Connecticut, Rhode Island, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Vermont and Maine, holding sign-services on Sundays and other days in as many places as possible. In this way the Gospel is preached to those whose ears are closed to the sound of the human voice. The foundation of all this peculiar work is of course laid in the various State Institutions, and we honor the self-denying men and women who devote themselves to the education of these children of silence. In the chapels of nearly all of the schools in this country, as well as in the one of the National Deaf-Mute College at Washington, there are sign-services on Sundays and other days, and the pupils are constantly receiving light and knowledge in relation to the truths of revelation. As they leave the fostering care of these specially blessed Institutions, they are met by the ministers of Christ and made to understand the great importance of entering into pastoral relations. Thus many have been led to Baptism, Confirmation and the Holy Communion, realizing more and more clearly the privileges and the responsibilities of the Christian life. While the work for which we are responsible is restricted within the limits referred to above, let us not forget what has been done in other departments, extending all over our country. A brief reference to these departments and the missionaries engaged therein will be found in the Appendix to this Report. There are nine Episcopal clergymen, four being deaf-mutes, who can by the sign-language minister to the cultivation of the spiritual life in a large number of persons whom our Heavenly Father has seen fit to deprive of their hearing. It is estimated that there are about 40,000 deaf-mutes in the United States.

In addition to maintaining these sign-services, our missionaries are constantly busy in seeking situations for the unemployed, in ministering to the sick and needy, in burying the dead, in counselling the perplexed, in interpreting under varying circumstances, and in persistent endeavors to lead deaf-mutes and their families to be truly happy in their earthly pilgrimage, that they may be eternally blessed in the life which lies beyond the veil.

We need an increasing income to sustain the important work which has been providentially entrusted to our care by the compassionate Saviour who spoke the word "Ephphatha" to a deaf and dumb man and restored him to hearing and speech. With God's blessing we are showing deaf-mutes how to hear the Gospel message spiritually, and how to give thanks with their hearts to Him who has redeemed them from sin and opened unto them the gates of eternal life. If they respond cheerfully to the will of Him who has seen fit to lay upon them a special discipline, they will find the gracious compensation in the glorious scenes of the mysterious future.

We acknowledge with devout gratitude all the offerings and donations which come from churches and individuals. The lengthening of our list of Life Members from year to year encourages us. Wherever this Report attracts the attention of those who have abundant means, we trust they will extend a helping hand to our Society which is still engaged in much pioneer work.

In the year 1889 the Twelfth Sunday after Trinity will come on the 8th of September. The Gospel for the day will remind vast numbers of Christian people throughout the world of the miracle to which we have already referred. We hope that on this day our Society will be more generally remembered.

In September we received a legacy of $2,500 from Mr. F. H. Cossitt. It came most opportunely and caused some temporary clouds to disappear. Most of it was used in the support of the Gallaudet Home for Deaf-Mutes. We trust that the relatives and friends of this thoughtful benefactor will be gratified to know of the timely encouragement which his bequest brought to us. We shall look for other legacies from time to time. If preferred, they can be left to "The Church Mission to Deaf-Mutes" in trust for the Gallaudet Home.

This Home, in which so many are interested, has emerged from the troubles and trials which encompassed it a year ago. Our Executive Committee and the Board of Lady Managers have put forth harmonious efforts with satisfactory results. A marked improvement has characterized every department.

We are grateful to the Manager, Mr. C. R. Thomson, for putting the interior of the Home in such a comfortable and attractive condition at his own expense. He has worked hard for the Home, and we trust that its friends throughout this State will show their appreciation of his devotion by sending him the means which are needed to meet the current expenses.

The Board of Lady Managers were fortunate in their choice of the Matron, Mrs. Ross, whose watchful care of the household is thoroughly appreciated.

We were also fortunate in the selection of Mr. Gardner as the farmer. He has indeed proved himself to be the right man in the right place.

The Board of Lady Managers have shown in many ways their interest. They have made the Home a comfortable place for our afflicted household. Through their influence many useful things were contributed to the Home when St. Barnabas Hospital in Poughkeepsie was closed. We thank the Managers of this Hospital for their consideration of our needs.

The lawn party held by the ladies in June was a great success. It was very kind in the Hon. Delano C. Calvin to make the address, from which some extracts are given in another part of this Report. We are grateful to Mr. Calvin for his labor of love and his encouraging words.

Religious services, including a monthly celebration of the Holy Communion, have been maintained in the Chapel of the Home. Mr. W. J. Nelson, of Poughkeepsie, has often very kindly and acceptably officiated. We return our thanks to him for his ministrations, and also to Dr. J. M. Cornell and Dr. W. Baxter, of Wappingers Falls, for their attentions to the inmates who needed medical advice.

There are twenty-one members of our interesting family at the Home. Several are aged, serenely waiting for the great change. Others have bodily infirmities, incapacitating them for work which would give them support. Two have become blind since they left school, and three others are nearly blind. Most of them are communicants, and we trust that in the Holy Communion they get strength to enable them to bear their affliction patiently and cheerfully.

Most of the men can do light work on the farm, and most of the women can assist in household duties. They all understand that they are most happy when they are trying to be useful.

To get possession of the Home with the farm-house, out-buildings, and a farm of 156 acres, to make the necessary repairs and procure the furniture, involved a cash expenditure of some $17,000, and a mortgage of $15,000, which has been reduced to $8,000.

The interest on the mortgage was at first six per cent., but owing to the exertions of Mr. H. F. Herkner, one of our Trustees, this has been reduced to five per cent.

May we have the satisfaction of reporting next year that this mortgage has been paid?

It will be advisable to have, as soon as possible, a new building for the male inmates. Who will aid us to take this step and thus greatly add to the efficiency of our Home? There are numerous applicants for whom there is no room. For additional information we refer to the reports which follow from the committees and officers of the Home.

The Mission House, at 220 East 13th Street, was discontinued on the first of May. It is hoped that at some future time, under more favorable circumstances, we may renew this department of usefulness. When sufficient means are in hand, we could make a Mission House of great service to the hundreds of deaf-mutes living in New York and vicinity. We need rooms for night-schools, a library, a reading-room, a hall for the meeting of societies, debates, lectures, etc. Other parts of the building could be arranged for the residence of the missionary and the board of such as it might be deemed expedient to accommodate. Such an edifice would strengthen our Society and give greater prominence to the Mission which we have striven for sixteen years to maintain.

Report of Mrs. C. M. Nelson

TO THE BOARD OF LADY MANAGERS OF THE GALLAUDET HOME.

LADIES—As this is our first Annual Meeting, you will allow me to present to you a few facts relative to our work here in this "Home," during the year just passed.

Our first meeting was held December 30th, 1887. The current management of this Home was then committed to our care.

Our second meeting was held January 23d, 1888. Rev. Dr. Gallaudet was present, and gave us a brief history of the "Home."

Our third meeting was held February 9th. By-laws were prepared, read and approved. It was decided to hold our meetings monthly, the first Thursday in each month,—these meetings to be held at the "Home" in the summer, and at the house of the President in the winter. It was also decided to hold our Annual Meeting at the "Home" the first Thursday in October.

Our work this year, under the blessing of Divine Providence, has been productive of good. It is "a labor that proceedeth of love," the details of which will be given to you in the report of our Secretary.

Only those acquainted with the demands upon us can appreciate how much has been done. Particularly let me mention here, your offerings at Easter, that made these inmates so happy, and made them feel there was a chord of tender sympathy and a desire on your part to make Easter a glad joyful day to them, as it was to us. I can never forget their expressions of thankfulness, and I earnestly wish you could talk with them, as I can, and know for yourselves their affection for you all, and how delighted they are even with your presence, for it sheds joy and comfort in their silent lives. They are isolated—a little world by themselves—a home of comparative loneliness—no sound is ever heard by them, with some no light is ever seen, "The darkness and the light are both alike to them."

The number of inmates at the present time is twenty-two, eleven men and eleven women; two being totally blind, six very nearly blind. One of these aged ones is an invalid, has long been such, and, her sickness being a lingering one, will require long and constant care. She is entirely helpless, and tired and weary are they who carry her daily from her bed to her chair and administer to her wants and comforts.

It will not be out of place just here, I trust, to once more extend our hearty thanks to Mr. Thomson, who has given so liberally his money, and his time without any remuneration, to make this Home so beautiful and comfortable.

The question of support is a question that will present itself, as it always does, in a home like this, dependent entirely upon voluntary contributions.

It is a home without distinction in race or belief, and I am sure we all feel it has a moral claim upon the whole community. We feel grateful that it has been so generously remembered with money and supplies from many donors—the trustees of St. Barnabas, the “basket,” which has been well filled twice, the Lawn Party, which was a great success, notwithstanding the excessive heat, and had the day been cooler and the air clearer, we would have doubled our receipts; but we did well, and all that was not sold was given to the inmates, and they had a feast. They will never forget that day, and some of them have already begun to work making fancy articles, looking forward to another Lawn Party in 1889.

The needs of this Home are still very great, and these aged and infirm deaf and blind of God's poor call for continued work and help from us. Can we not interest our friends and get annual subscriptions? Will we not personally make an appeal, and see what we can do, and none are so poor but they can afford to give a little for such a grand, noble charity. We never regret the good we have done, and I am sure we do often regret the good we have left undone. Let us begin this year with renewed interest in this good work, caring for and comforting the declining years of these aged helpless ones.

I thank you, ladies, members of this Board, for all that you have done, for the great assistance you have rendered. You have indeed been great helpers, and you have done great good. Without you nothing could have been accomplished.

Our much loved and respected friend, whose honored name this “Home” bears, appreciates more than I can ever tell you, your labor of love, your care and your interest in this Home, for which he worked so hard and so long to establish. The Board of Trustees also acknowledge and appreciate all that you have done and are doing in co-operating with them to sustain and put this “Home,” this venture of faith, on a sure and permanent foundation.

Permit me, in conclusion, to thank you again, and may we all hope that the good that has been done in the past year may take root and bring forth not only two fold but seven fold in the year to come. Let us remember we are working for Him who doeth all things well, for He alone can make the lame to walk, the blind to see, the deaf to hear, and the dumb to speak.

EXTRACTS FROM THE ADDRESS DELIVERED AT THE LAWN
PARTY OF THE GALLAUDET HOME FOR DEAF-MUTES,
JUNE 23D, 1888, BY THE HON. DELANO C. CALVIN.Ladies of the Board of Managers and Friends of the Gallaudet Home for Deaf-Mutes :

No history of this Home, or account of the beneficent work it has undertaken, would be either complete or appropriate that did not place in the forefront the admiration, the love and the reverence we feel for the unostentatious, the devoted, the zealous, the consecrated Christian minister so abundant in good works, and whose praise is in all the churches, who has inspired and promoted this institution. May God, in his good providence, be with him in all his journeyings, and in his good time restore him renewed in strength to his great mission.

I would also specially commend to the interest and the confidence of the humane, the generous and the benevolent, the Home, its work and its aims, in its unique field of labor; and I would do particular honor to those faithful, zealous, sympathizing and devout women—"not a few"—who have strengthened the hands and encouraged and cheered the heart of him whose honored name it bears. As I contemplate the blessed co-operation of devoted Christian women, in such a work, with so saintly a man, I can but exclaim, with the poet:

"Angels are round the good man to catch the incense of his prayers,
And they fly to minister kindness to those for whom he pleadeth."

I cannot separate, in my thoughts, the charity which has called us together on this occasion, from that great and widespread mission to deaf-mutes of which Dr. Gallaudet has been so conspicuous and efficient an advocate and administrator, nor, indeed, what seems to me to have been a very great charity to the "Children of Silence," the development of the sign-language, as full of wonder as of blessing; for it has given utterance to imprisoned thoughts, emancipated the impulses of the heart, unlocked the emotions and aspirations of the soul, revealed the glories of nature, and unfolded to the devout and raptured spirit the ineffable bliss of a Christian life and the seraphic beatitudes of heaven.

When we consider the discouraging circumstances, the apparently hopeless aspect of the case, and remember that St. Augustine, in the fourth century, declared that deafness made faith impossible, since he who was born deaf could not learn the letters by the reading of which he might acquire faith, and that as late as the sixteenth century, Richard, the eldest son of Viscount Ballevant, in Ireland, was excluded from the succession because he was deaf and dumb, and that it was not till early in the present century that the first school for the instruction of deaf-mutes was established in this country by the father of Dr. Gallaudet, we cannot but feel surprised and delighted at the progress that has been made.

With these preliminary thoughts, which concern the "Home" and its aims in the concrete, I have selected the theme of "Charity" for our brief consideration on this occasion, as obviously germane to the purpose of your organization and the inspiration of your ministrations.

While the word charity has, in common parlance, obtained a significance which is limited to overt acts of beneficence, and often to the more restricted act of almsgiving, it still has a broader and truer definition, which embraces these and also includes good affection, love, tenderness, kindness, good will, benevolence, humane sympathy, and a disposition to put a favorable construction upon the conduct of others.

But for this more comprehensive meaning, St. Paul could never have said: "And now abideth faith, hope, charity, these three; but the greatest of these is charity."

(Having fully set forth and illustrated this grand and inspiring theme, Mr. Calvin closed as follows:)

The special need and utility of the "Gallaudet Home" will be better understood and appreciated when we reflect that the poor and infirm deaf-mutes are so few that, except in the larger cities of the State, there would be but a single inmate of that character in the poor-house of a county, so he would be completely isolated, utterly incapable of intercourse or companionship with other inmates, and without power of making his wants known; in short, he would be subjected to a solitude and despair that language cannot adequately express or imagination conceive. It follows that such a home meets an imperative want, and when it is organized and maintained upon the catholic basis, proscribing neither creed, color or nationality, but recognizing a common fraternity of need and distress, it appeals in most persuasive and pathetic tones to the nobler impulses of all good and generous people.

I am addressing a cultivated, prosperous, grateful, benevolent and Christian assembly, on behalf of an institution that ministers to the temporal and spiritual needs of our brethren who, in addition to the ills and distresses of poverty, sickness, homeless privations and infirmities of old age, are bereft of senses which so largely contribute to make life a joy to us; that but for the beneficence of the sign language shut them out from all sounds and appreciation of gladness, of praise, of prayer, and close their hearts and minds to all knowledge of God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Ghost.

While if I could "speak with the tongues of men and of angels" I could not adequately portray the immeasurable contrast between the sad lot of those thus deprived and bereft, and of those blessed with comfortable homes, with health, surrounded by friends and cherished companions, possessing unimpaired faculties, able to read the sublime book of nature and the sublimer revelation of God in Christ, yet I would with earnestness call you to the contemplation of these inexpressible contrasts, and ask you to consider, as in the sight of God, the proper expression and due measure of your gratitude to him, and to your neighbors deprived of the faculties, the comforts, the privileges and blessings you so richly enjoy.

Inquire of yourselves what of ease, of pleasure, of time and of means you would give to avert a fate like theirs, and, as you contrast the brief period for the enjoyment of your possessions here with the blissful rewards of a limitless future, answer by your gratitude, by your generous impulses, by your humane sympathies, by your compassionate affections, and your devout prayers; do what you can—"not grudgingly or of necessity, for God loveth a cheerful giver"—according to your proportion of faith, of love unstinted and hopes unbounded, to relieve this Home of its incumbrance, and set it forward in its great, its unique, its pathetic mission of mercy.

The loftiest flights of the imagination cannot compass the vast contrast between the present indifferent and uncharitable condition of the world with the wrongs and miseries produced thereby, and its condition permeated, moved and controlled by the benignant spirit and beneficent practice of charity.

Some of those present have doubtless attempted to look out, on an early morning, into a damp and pervading fog, when all nature seemed enveloped in a chill mantle of dreary desolation, and as you stood gazing out upon the depressing spectacle, peering into the gloom, you have seen a faint suggestion of light begin to pierce the sullen mists, and the dim rays of the morning sun essay to struggle through the mass of vapor as the herald of his advent. In a brief space you saw the fog begin to lift and reveal the indistinct outline of surrounding objects, then the loveliness of the near landscape, then the broader expanse of the valley, with its cultivated fields, its sparkling rivulets, the calm loveliness of the hill-environed lake. You followed the shadows as they receded before the heat of the advancing sun, and the illumination crept slowly up the acclivity of the adjacent hills, until the reluctant gloom was driven to the distant mountains, and up to their summits, and from thence to the measureless expanse beyond, and there wholly dissipated; until, in the effulgence of the "orb of day," you beheld, with undimmed vision, the beauties and splendors of nature, the serene loveliness of the landscape, the mountains in their imposing grandeur, the sublimity of the heavens, and the unapproachable glory of revived nature.

This wonderful contrast was but a faint similitude of that which would be revealed in the aspect of the race under the sweet, elevating, purifying supremacy of the principles and practice of charity.

Toward the consummation of such a result you are privileged to labor, with the assurance of reaping the perennial joy of doing good.

"There is indeed one crowning joy,
A pleasure that can never cloy,
The bliss of doing good;
And to it a reward is given
Most precious in the sight of Heaven,
The tear of gratitude."

NEW YORK, October 2d, 1888.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE, CHURCH MISSION TO DEAF MUTES.

Gentlemen:—We, of your Board of Trustees, having made a visit to the Home at New Hamburg on September 29th and 30th, in company with Dr. Gallaudet, our General Manager, respectfully beg to offer for your consideration a few suggestions that have occurred to us from a thorough inspection of the premises and grounds.

The Home at present is in a handsome and comfortable condition ; it has ten male and eleven female inmates ; two servants, a matron, and manager Thomson ; at the Farm House, the farmer and his wife and five children (four of whom labor on the farm and dairy)—making thirty-two people now deriving support from this institution, at the comparatively small outlay of $100 each per annum, indicating that due economy is being practiced in the expenditures, and showing a steady growth in the few years past. That is certainly a matter of much congratulation to us all.

Considering their bodily infirmities, we find the inmates present an unusually healthy, cleanly and satisfactory appearance, showing that the fresh country air and the food and care given them is all that could be asked for, and that the change from their old city quarters has more than fulfilled our expectations.

Dr. Gallaudet held two services on Sunday in the sign language, administering the Holy Communion and Baptism, and enabling our little congregation of thirty two people to offer grateful thanks to our Heavenly Father for the present prosperous condition of the Home.

The management of the Home under Mrs. Ross, the present matron, is to be commended in every respect ; order and cleanliness appear to be the rule and not the exception. She works faithfully and apparently has the welfare of the inmates at heart.

Our complete inspection of the farm and grounds warrant the same favorable commendation. Farmer Gardner seems to be the right man at last, and to study our interests and practice suitable economy in his outlay.

The stables, barns, cattle, pigs, poultry, &c., are in a clean and healthy condition and appear to be well cared for and properly managed. We think that the farmer fully earns the salary paid him, and that it would be a wise economy to continue him for another year to enable him to complete his plans for increasing the farm products. Among other things, he suggests that a larger profit could be realized, if double the ground now used were put into a vegetable garden, so that truck farming might be carried on more extensively ; the chances being that more ready money could be realized from that investment than any other farm product. We concur in every particular.

He also suggests that, inasmuch as he has sufficient fodder and room, he be allowed to take a number of horses to board this winter. They can readily be obtained at an average of $8 to $10 a month ; the cost of keeping them would be about $6, but their manure would be worth more to the farm than any profit we could make out of them. The ground will need it all and more too in the spring.

He says, and properly too, that the present barn is very inconveniently situated, and that it would be a saving in labor, time and expense, if a new one were built in the vicinity of the barnyard. This improvement will be absolutely necessary in the near future. And this brings us to the gist of the present communication.

It will be apparent to all that the time is fast approaching when we shall be obliged,—with our inmates—to make a separation of the sexes. The present Home is too crowded, and there is no room now for any more females.

With our General Manager, Dr. Gallaudet, we have looked over the ground, and would suggest that the present barn (being in size 30x50 ft.) be altered into a dormitory and retreat for men ; a portion of the lower floor to be reserved for a hospital. We think that this could be done at an expense of about $800, giving us ample room for 25 more inmates, or 50 in all ; also that a new barn be built at the farm house. This would cost about $1,000.

In our judgment this would be a much cheaper plan than erecting an entire new building. Sooner or later we must have a new barn, and in this way we can utilize the old one.

The roof could be raised at any time, giving an additional story for 20 inmates,

With Manager Thomson we have discussed this plan. He concurs in it and considers it the most feasible way out of the difficulty.

We would therefore suggest that, during the winter, the necessary plans and specifications be drawn by a competent draughtsman and estimates procured, so that the work could go on in the spring.

We have to congratulate ourselves on the fact that the Cossett Legacy has enabled us to cancel the floating indebtedness, and that, excepting the mortgage, the institution is nearly free from debt ; therefore we do not hesitate to recommend these improvements.

We have no desire to figure as a self-constituted committee, but the state of things as we find them is self evident, and certainly justifies us in making this report.

We trust it will be received in the same kindly spirit which has prompted it.

Respectfully submitted,

HENRY F. HERKNER,
ALBERT L. WILLIS.

The Gallaudet Home for Deaf-Mutes Society.

THE SECOND ANNUAL REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

According to the provisions of the organization of the Gallaudet Home for Deaf-Mutes Society, we herewith submit our annual report of its proceedings for the past year. Another year has passed and proved very fruitful and favorable to the cause of maintaining the Home, and we have reason to feel thankful for it; and pray that God may continually sustain us to carry on the work intrusted to our care. The Executive Committee desires to express its heartfelt thanks to our friends for their co-operation for the welfare of the Home for Aged and Infirm Deaf-Mutes, and most earnestly appeals to them to continue their interest in the same cause hereafter. That the spirit of charity and good will may prevail among all the deaf-mutes of the State of New York in that direction is the sincerest wish of the friends of the Gallaudet Home for Deaf-Mutes.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8, 1888.

QUARTERLY REPORT OF THE GENERAL MANAGER.

Since the last meeting of the Trustees I have spoken at Sunday evening services, in the interests of our work, in Grace Church, Plainfield; Grace Chapel, Church of the Intercession, Christ, and St. Luke's, New York; Trinity Church, New Rochelle; St. James, Newtown; and St. Mark's, Brooklyn, E. D. At the Church of the Intercession, Sunday evening, November 13th, we celebrated the fifteenth anniversary of our society. I spent Sunday, November 27th, at the Gallaudet Home, speaking in the evening at Zion Church, Wappinger's Falls. On Sunday, December 4th, I conducted services in All Saints' Church, Providence, and Trinity Church, Pawtucket. December 11th I officiated at a celebration of the Holy Communion in the Church of the Good Shepherd, Boston, at 9:15, for deaf-mutes in attendance at the jubilee, observing the hundredth anniversary of my father's birthday, December 10th, 1787. In the afternoon I conducted a service in the hall of the Young Men's Christian Association. On Sunday, January 22d, I held services at the Home. On the other Sundays of the quarter I have taken the 2:45 P. M. services at St. Ann's Church. On Monday, at 3 P. M., I met the Ladies' Committee of the Home, at Mrs. Nelson's, in Poughkeepsie. I have officiated at week night services in Worcester, Wakefield, Lowell, Beverly and Mt. Vernon. The jubilee in Boston, referred to above, was full of interest. Meetings were held in Faneuil Hall on Friday evening, December 9th, and Saturday, December 10th. I interpreted the address of the Mayor of Boston, and read the oration of Dr. Peet, as he gave it in signs.

I reached home on Monday morning, December 12th, staid a short time, and then went over to Philadelphia to attend the exercises commemorative of my father's birthday, held in the evening at St. George's Hall. The following evening I was present at a reception in the Institution for Deaf-Mutes.

I have been busy in looking after deaf-mutes out of work, in sickness and in trouble. Mrs. Roberts, who was kindly cared for at the New York Hospital for a while, was taken back to the Mission House, where she seems now slowly recovering her strength. Miss Stewart having been kindly received into Trinity Hospital, I have called on her there.

The daily correspondence has taken considerable time, and constant efforts have been made to procure the means necessary to sustain the increasingly important work of our Society.

THOMAS GALLAUDET.

NEW YORK, Jan. 25, 1888.

I have been present at meetings of the Board of Directors of the New York Institution for Deaf-Mutes, and also those of the Vestry of St. Ann's Church for Deaf-Mutes. On February 14th I married a couple of deaf-mutes, Mr. A. A. Barnes and Miss Noble.

On the third of April I administered the Holy Communion to Mr. William M. Genet, one of the oldest deaf-mute communicants of St. Ann's, and on the seventh Rev. Mr. Colt and I officiated at his funeral in St. Andrew's Church, Harlem. Dr. Peet interpreted the lesson as I read it.

On Saturday, June 2d, kind friends opened the way for me to sail for Europe in the Aurania. For most of the time I was the guest of Mr. Frederic Goodridge. I saw something of England, Scotland, France, Switzerland, Germany and Holland. I enjoyed the services which were held in connection with the Lambeth Conference of Bishops, in Canterbury Cathedral and Westminster Abbey.

I attended the 4th of July reception at the residence of the United States Minister Phelps. In London I visited St. Saviour's Church and St. Barnabas Church, both ministering to deaf-mutes under the Royal Association, and having the services of the Rev. Dr. Stainer, the Rev. Mr. Sturdee and Mr. Gilby. On several occasions, in churches and on board the Aurania, going out and returning, I spoke of the Church Mission to Deaf-Mutes. On Sunday, September 9th, as our ship lay in Queenstown harbor, Mr. Magivin, the deaf-mute missionary in Ireland, came on board and made me a short visit. On Tuesday, September 18th, Mr. Goodridge and I reached the haven where we would be, with thanks for the goodness of our Heavenly Father, who had watched over us and brought us to our homes in safety. NEW YORK, July 25th, 1888.

TO THE TRUSTEES OF THE CHURCH MISSION TO DEAF-MUTES.

GENTLEMEN—During the past three months I have officiated at church services for deaf-mutes in St Ann's Church, New York City, ten times, at two of which the Holy Communion was celebrated. I served as interpreter at a convention of "The Granite State Deaf-Mute Mission" at Nashua, N. H., where I conducted a sign service in a Methodist Chapel and assisted the rector, the Rev. Mr. Moreland, at a combined service in the Church of the Good Shepherd. I have married two deaf-mute couples.

I have devoted much time to visiting the sick and poor, seeking situations for the unemployed, to correspondence, and to the usual variety of ministrations which may not be enumerated.

Since the 20th of September, excepting the above-mentioned visit to Nashua, N. H., I have, by advice of your General Manager, been taking a vacation here, at the home of my boyhood, in northern Vermont.

I have now given sixteen of the best years of my life to the service of the Mission. I believe I have not eaten the bread of idleness, and have not been overpaid for my services. Yet I have substantial reasons for believing that some of the friends of the Mission would be glad to have me withdraw. In deference to the feelings of others, and in view of enterprises now giving more promise of success than ever before, I continue; but if your honorable Board, as a whole, would prefer to dispense with my services, please do not hesitate to say so, as I do not wish to remain where I am not wanted. I want no vote of confidence in any case, but if there be a general desire for my withdrawal, I would like to know it.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN CHAMBERLAIN,

Assistant General Manager.

Report of Mr. George W. Schutt.

SAUGERTIES, Dec. 1, 1888.

TO THE REV. THOMAS GALLAUDET, D.D.

Rev. and Dear Sir:—I send you the following report for the year ending October 31st, 1888. I held frequent sign services in the chapel of the Home for Aged and Infirm Deaf-Mutes, near Poughkeepsie, N. Y., and other places. Last April I resigned my position as House Superintendent and Chaplain at the Home, and returned to Saugerties, N. Y.

I conduct monthly services at Cornwall, Newburgh, Kingston and other places, where money is collected to pay for my traveling expenses. I feel more encouraged with God's help to work for the welfare of my deaf-mute brethren, and also to teach them how to understand the duties of the Christian religion.

Your obedient servant,

GEORGE W. SCHUTT.

Report of Mr. James Lewis.

Mr. Lewis has taken the responsive portions of the Sunday afternoon sign services in St. Ann's Church, New York, and has been useful to our Mission in other ways.

His duties as Collector for our Society have, however, taken most of his time and attention. He has been faithful and persevering. The fruits of his labors have been of great help to our work.

Extract from the Tenth Annual Address of Rev. STEPHEN F. HOLMES, Rector of Trinity Church, Mount Vernon, N. Y., January 13th, 1889.

"Our deaf-mute friends are still associated with the parish, though we do not see them at the services as often as we would desire. A lay reader rendered services in signs for them on the Sunday afternoons of the 29th of January and the 26th of February—while on Palm Sunday, the 25th of March, just before the regular evening service, Dr. Gallaudet gave them a brief service and lecture and then interpreted the service which followed.

On the afternoon of May 16th, he went with me to Yonkers to baptize a child of deaf-mutes who are under my pastoral care, and on the evening of that day he signed the confirmation service for some seven deaf-mutes who were present. On the 1st of December, again Dr. Gallaudet was with me to interpret the funeral services over the remains of Mrs. Catharine L. Redmond, one of our most devout deaf-mutes, who had passed peacefully away on the evening of the 29th of November preceding.

The 4th Sunday in Advent also, the 23d of December; in the evening the deaf-mutes had the pleasure of having a service interpreted for them and on the following day Dr. Gallaudet went with me to baptize another child—the child of a deaf-mute.

I have in anticipation a visit from the Rev. Mr. Chamberlain, the assistant of the Rev. Dr. Gallaudet, on the 1st Sunday in February, to interpret the communion office for our deaf-mute friends, at the conclusion of which he proposes to give them a brief service in signs. I trust all our deaf-mute parishioners will seek to be present on that day."

CONSTITUTION.

ARTICLE I.

The Church Mission to Deaf-Mutes is a Society designed to promote the temporal and spiritual welfare of adult deaf-mutes. Its central office shall be in the City of New York.

ARTICLE II.

Its members shall consist of those persons paying two dollars and upwards a year towards its support, who shall be elected at any regular meeting of the Trustees. Any person paying one hundred dollars at one time shall be eligible to life membership.

ARTICLE III.

PRAYER FOR THE DEAF.

O GOD, our Heavenly Father, Whose dearly beloved Son Jesus Christ, when He dwelt on earth, went about doing good ; unstopping the ears of the deaf, and loosening the tongues of the dumb ; look down with loving eyes upon all Thy deaf and mute children, and give them the special blessing of Thy mercy and grace. Let Thy fatherly hand ever be over them, let Thy Holy Spirit ever be with them ; so that they may learn the truth as it is in Jesus, and believe in and rest upon Him as the Saviour of their souls, and find in Him that joy and peace which the Holy Ghost alone can bestow. Be with them, we beseech Thee, in all the trials and duties and dangers of this life, and may they so live in Thy fear and love here, that in the world to come they may ever, with open ears, and loving tongues, send forth Thy praise in Thy heavenly kingdom.

Hear us, O Lord God, through Thy Son Jesus Christ, to Whom, with Thee, O Father, and Thee, O Holy Ghost, be all honor and glory, now and forever. Amen.

Written and set forth by Bishop Stevens of Pennsylvania, Feb. 6th, 1881, and authorized in various Dioceses. Also suggested for private intercession, on Thursdays ; on which day a similar Prayer, written by Bishop Alexander of Derry, is used in Great Britain and Ireland.
